

Valley of Flowers: Journey to the Fairy Land

*"In my mountain wandering I have not seen a more beautiful valley than this...
this valley of peace and perfect beauty
where the human spirit may find repose."*
- Frank Smythe (man who discovered VOF)

vXplor Adventure Tourism organizes a 9 days trip to VOF, Hemkund Sahib, Badrinath , Mana village & Auli starting from 27th August 2010 to 4th September 2010.

Valley of Flowers is an exceptionally beautiful high-altitude Himalayan valley splashed with colour as it bloomed with hundreds different beautiful flowers, some very rare ones like Brahm Kamal, Blue Poppy, Cobra Lily etc, taking on various shades of colours as time progressed. Lots of mythological legends are associated with this valley; the most popular one is that this is the valley where Shri Hanuman searched for Sanjeevani Buti to cure Shri Laxman.

Today VOF is a UNESCO World heritage site and hundreds of people come to this meadow to see the nature's most outstanding beauty.
